When was your last Backup?

Hard drive crashes, spyware, hackers, lightning strikes, viruses, floods, stolen laptops, trojans, fires, and user error are only some of the ways files can be lost.

The only way to keep your files from being sucked down the black hole is to make regular backups. If you need assistance or have questions about what or how to backup, contact your IT staff.

(It will make their day.)